Emergency Assistance

To assist our customers when the unexpected happens, we will provide the following services in conjunction with our assistance company:

24 hour, 365 days Emergency Helpline

If the Insured Vehicle is immobilised or sustains damage as a result of an insured event within the Republic of Ireland, the United Kingdom or the E.U. you should call the Emergency Helpline on the following telephone numbers:

Republic of Ireland	0818 208 408
Northern Ireland	0808 101 7444
Outside the Republic of Ireland	00 353 91 560672

Please have the following information available when you call:

- your exact location
- the policy number
- the registration number of the Insured Vehicle
- a telephone number where you can be contacted
- a brief description of the problem

We will arrange for someone to come to your assistance as soon as possible. You may have to pay the cost of such assistance directly but gain the benefit of special rates negotiated by our assistance company. Any outlay for which you are entitled to claim under your policy will be reimbursed to you. If you make your own arrangements you will not be reimbursed.

If you ring the Emergency Helpline we will provide the following benefits:

1. European Breakdown Assistance

If the Insured Vehicle is immobilised as a result of a mechanical or electrical breakdown, fire, attempted theft, malicious damage, punctures that require assistance to fix or replace a wheel, lost keys, stolen keys, keys broken in the lock or locked in the Insured Vehicle, we will provide up to 1 hour of Roadside Assistance free of charge if the campervan can be repaired in situ and not at the repairer's premises.

Should this prove unsuccessful we will organise and pay the cost of towing your campervan to the nearest competent repairer or to a garage your choice, whichever is closer.

We will also pass on two urgent messages, in order to assist you in your time of need.

Please note that the choice of assistance supplied depends on the options available to the rescue provider at the time of the request for assistance. The cover provided will be at the discretion of our assistance company, as not all options are available to them at all times.

Important Note: No cover is provided under this policy for the continuation of your journey, the cost of overnight accommodation or the cost of a replacement vehicle (hire-charges).

Please refer to 'Section 4 – European Breakdown Assistance' on page 18 for full details of the cover, conditions and exceptions that apply.

2. Road Traffic Accident, Fire & Theft Assistance

If the Insured Vehicle cannot be driven due to a road accident or damage caused as a result of a fire, theft or attempted-theft, we will arrange for your campervan to be recovered by one of our approved repairers (up to a maximum of €150). If the Insured Vehicle can be driven, we will direct you to the nearest approved repairer.

If necessary, we will also pay the cost of storing the campervan (up to a maximum of €200), and the costs of delivering the Insured Vehicle after the loss or damage is repaired to either your address in the Republic of Ireland or to the location at which you are staying (if abroad), up to a maximum of €150. Please note that no cover is provided under this policy for the repatriation of the campervan from outside of the Republic of Ireland.

Having contacted us and used one of our approved repairers, you will then be able to avail of one of the following options:

Conditions

For the purposes of these conditions, the expression 'Insured Person' shall mean The Insured (as stated on the Schedule) and any other person entitled to be indemnified under this Policy.

1. Claims

- (a) In the event of any accident, injury, loss or damage likely to give rise to a claim under this Policy the Insured must:
 - (i) as soon as practicable (but no later than 30 days from the date of the event) notify the Insurer and provide all information and assistance that the Insurer may require
 - (ii) send to the Insurer any letter, claim, writ, summons or legal process as soon as it is received
 - (iii) notify the Insurer in writing as soon as he/she becomes aware of any impending prosecution or coroner's inquest involving any person entitled to be indemnified under this Policy.
- (b) Further:
 - (i) The Insured Person (or the Insured Person's agent) shall not make any admission of liability or offer or promise of payment but shall permit the Insurer to have the sole conduct of all negotiations or legal proceedings.
 - (ii) Subject to Condition 16 of this Policy, the Insurer shall be entitled to use the name of the Insured Person for the purpose of resisting or enforcing any claim. The Insured Person shall give to the Insurer all reasonable assistance in connection therewith, to include the Insured Person cooperating with the Insurer in the investigation of insured events (including by responding to reasonable requests for information in an honest and reasonably careful manner) and shall act in all cases in the best interests of the Insurer.
 - (iii) While the Insurer has the right to make the final determination in relation to coverage or handling of the whole or part of any claim, the Insurer will engage with the Insured Person during its investigation of the claim and give the Insured Person the opportunity to submit to the Insurer any relevant evidence which could inform the Insurer's determination as regards the claim. However, the Insurer shall have full power to settle any claim or part thereof and in the event of any dispute between the Insurer and the Insured Person such settlement shall have the effect for all purposes as if it were made with the concurrence of the Insured Person notwithstanding that such settlement may be made without admission of liability.

2. Fraudulent claims

If a claim contains information that is false or misleading in any material respect and the Insured or Insured Person (as the case may be) either knows that it is false or misleading or consciously disregards whether it is false or misleading, or a claim is otherwise fraudulent in any respect, ("Fraudulent Claim") the Insurer shall be entitled to:

- (a) refuse to pay the claim; and

- (b) terminate the Policy by written notice in which case cover under the Policy shall be treated as having terminated with effect from the date on which the Fraudulent Claim was submitted.

In such circumstances of termination the Insurer shall refuse all liability to the Insured and/or Insured Person (as the case may be) under the Policy in respect of any claim made after the date of submission of the Fraudulent Claim (but not in respect of any claim(s) made before submission of the Fraudulent Claim) and the Insurer need not return any of the premiums paid under the Policy.

3. Cancellation of the policy

This Policy may be cancelled:

- (a) by the Insurer sending to the Insured 10 day's notice of cancellation by registered post to the Insured's last known address.
- (b) by the Insured, but such instruction will only be effective from the date of receipt by the Insurer of the Certificate of Motor Insurance and Insurance Disc.

The Insurer will in either event return to the Insured a proportionate part of the premium paid in respect of the unexpired term of the Policy subject to the following:

- (i) No refund will be allowed if an incident giving rise to a claim occurred during the Period of Insurance.
- (ii) No refund will be allowed if the premium for the Period of Insurance has not been paid to the Insurer.
- (iii) No administration charge will be levied or deducted if the Insured requests the cancellation within 14 working days after the conclusion of the Policy (the "Cooling-off Period"). If cancellation is at the request of the Insured after the Cooling-off Period and during the first Period of Insurance an administration charge will be deducted from any refund allowed.

Any cancellation by either the Insurer or the Insured shall be without prejudice to any rights or claims of the Insurer or the Insured arising prior to the expiration of such notice of cancellation.

4. Instalment defaults

Where the Insurer has agreed to accept payment by instalments, any default in payment on the due date may result in the Policy cover being terminated.

5. Other Insurances

If any claim covered by this Policy is also covered by any other policy of insurance whether effected by the Insured or not (excluding claims under Additional Benefit No. 6), the Insurer shall not be liable to pay more than a rateable proportion. Provided always that nothing in this Condition shall impose on the Insurer any liability from which it would have been relieved by Part 3 (b), (iii) and (iv) of Section 1: 'Liability to Third Parties' on page 10 but for the terms of this Condition.

6. Care of Vehicle

The Insured shall take all reasonable steps to safeguard the Insured Vehicle against loss, damage or breakdown. The Insured Vehicle must also be maintained in an efficient and roadworthy condition.

The Insured shall also allow the Insurer's authorised representative to inspect the Insured Vehicle at any time.

Subject to Condition 15, if Condition 6 "Care of Vehicle" is not complied with, the Insurer reserves the right not to pay a claim or if, by law, the Insurer is obliged to meet a claim, then the Insurer reserves the right to seek recovery of the payment from the Insured.

7. Arbitration

All differences arising out of this Contract shall be referred to an Arbitrator to be appointed by the parties in accordance with current statutory provisions. Where any difference is by this Condition to be referred to arbitration the making of an award shall be a condition precedent to any right of action against the Insurer. Claims not referred to arbitration within 12 calendar months from the date of disclaimer of liability shall be deemed to have been abandoned.

8. Laws Relating to Compulsory Motor Insurance

If, under the provisions of Section 76 of the Road Traffic Act 1961 (as amended), or the equivalent law of any other country (if any) in which you are covered by this Policy, the Insurer is required by law to pay a claim which it would not otherwise be obliged to pay under the terms of this Policy, the Insurer shall pay such claim but shall be entitled to recover from the Insured or the Insured Person (as the case may be) all sums paid by the Insurer.

9. Duty to Comply with Policy Conditions

- (a) The Insured must comply with the terms, limitations, Exceptions, Conditions and Endorsements of this Policy so far as they relate to anything to be done or complied with by the Insured, to include the Insured cooperating with the Insurer in the investigation of insured events, including by responding to reasonable requests for information in an honest and reasonably careful manner.
- (b) Other than where expressly provided in this Policy, compliance by the Insured with the terms, limitations, Exceptions, Conditions and Endorsements of this Policy shall be a condition precedent to any liability of the Insurer to make any payment under the Policy.
- (c) Breach of any notification-related term or Condition will entitle the Insurer to refuse payment of a claim where the Insurer was prejudiced by the breach of the notification-related term or Condition in question.

10. Insurance Act 1936

All monies which become or may become due and payable by the Insurer under this Policy shall in accordance with Section 93 of the Insurance Act 1936 be payable and paid in the Republic of Ireland.

11. Stamp Duties Consolidation Act 1999

The appropriate Stamp Duty has been or will be paid in accordance with the provisions of Section 5 of the Stamp Duties Consolidation Act 1999.

12. Premium Alterations

If an alteration to the Policy results in an additional premium due to the Insurer or a refund premium due to the Insured, we will only charge or refund such premium provided the amount involved is greater than or equal to €10.

13. (1) Pre-contractual Representations

The Insured acknowledges and accepts the following:

- (a) the Insured has a legal duty prior to entering into the Policy and/or prior to the renewal of this Policy to provide responses to questions asked by the Insurer in relation to the risk(s) to be insured.
- (b) a matter about which the Insurer asks a specific question is material to the risk undertaken by the Insurer or the calculation of the premium by the Insurer, or both.
- (c) the Insured has a legal duty to answer all questions asked by the Insurer honestly and with reasonable care.
- (d) while the Insurer acknowledges that the Insured has no legal duty of voluntary disclosure, the Insured shall ensure that information which is voluntarily provided by or on behalf of the Insured is provided honestly and with reasonable care.

(2) Remedies for Misrepresentation

- (a) In this Condition 13, the term “negligent misrepresentation” means a representation made without reasonable care but which was not fraudulent. Where a claim is made under the Policy but an answer which was provided, or information which was volunteered, by or on behalf of an Insured involves a negligent misrepresentation, the remedy available to the Insurer shall reflect what the Insurer would have done had it been aware of the full facts and shall be based on a compensatory and proportionate test, as follows:
 - (i) if the Insurer would not have entered into the Policy on any terms, the Insurer may avoid the Policy from inception or renewal (as the case may be) and refuse all claims, but shall return the premium paid;
 - (ii) if the Insurer would have entered into the Policy, but on different terms, the Policy is to be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms if the Insurer so requires;
 - (iii) if the Insurer would have entered into the Policy, but would have charged a higher premium, the Insurer may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on the relevant claim.
- (b) Where an answer which was provided, or information which was volunteered, involves a negligent misrepresentation which is identified at a time prior to there being any claim under the Policy, the Insurer may either:
 - (i) give notice to the Insured that in the event of a claim it will exercise the remedies in paragraphs (a)(i)-(iii) above as appropriate; and/or
 - (ii) terminate the Policy by giving reasonable notice.
- (c) Where a claim is made under the Policy but an answer which was provided, or information which was volunteered, by the Insured involves a fraudulent misrepresentation, or where any conduct by the Insured (relative to the Policy or the steps leading to its formation) involves fraud of any other kind, the Insurer shall be entitled to avoid the Policy from the date of commencement or renewal (as the case may be) without return of premium.

14. Change of policy details:

The Insured must immediately inform the Insurer about any of the following changes which occur during the Policy period:

- change of the Insured Vehicle
- change of use of the Insured Vehicle
- change of your address or the address at which the Insured Vehicle is kept
- change of the drivers permitted to use the Insured Vehicle
- change in the ownership or registered ownership of the Insured Vehicle
- change in your occupation
- any convictions, prosecutions pending, motoring offences, imposition of penalty points, or
- accidents involving any driver permitted to use the Insured Vehicle
- modifications or alterations to the Insured Vehicle
- any changes to:
 - the information provided in any Proposal Form or otherwise in response to specific questions asked by the Insurer; and/or
 - the information provided and recorded in any Statement of Fact issued to the Insured; and/or
 - the declarations made by or on behalf of the Insured; and/or
 - any additional information voluntarily provided.

When you notify the Insurer about a change, or if the Insurer otherwise becomes aware of any such change, as referenced above, the Insurer may reassess the premium chargeable and Policy cover more generally.

The Insurer may refuse a claim made by the Insured and/or an Insured Person (as the case may be) where there has been a change in the subject matter of the Policy which results in a new risk which the insurer did not agree to cover and which was beyond the reasonable contemplation of the Insurer and the Insured when the Policy was entered into.

Failure to disclose any such change may result in difficulty obtaining insurance in the future.

15. Effect of Continuing Restrictive Conditions

In this Policy, any term that imposes a Continuing Restrictive Condition, including one that is intended to reduce the risk of a particular type of loss, or reduce the risk of loss occurring at a particular time or in a particular location, shall be treated as a suspensive condition. This means that if:

- (a) the Insured breaches any such term; and
- (b) during the period of breach the Insured suffers a relevant loss; and

- (c) such breach increased, in the circumstances concerned, the risk of the loss suffered by the Insured,

the Insurer will have no liability for the loss.

16. Subrogation

This clause applies where the Insurer has the right to be subrogated to the Insured Person's rights against some other person but the Insured Person has not exercised those rights and might reasonably be expected not to exercise those rights because:

- (a) the Insured Person and the other person are members of the same family (to be construed in accordance with the Employment Equality Act 1998), or are cohabitants (to be construed in accordance with the Civil Partnership and Certain Rights and Obligations of Cohabitants Act 2010); or
- (b) the Insured Person expressly or impliedly consented to the use, by the other person, of a motor vehicle insured under this Policy.

Where in the above circumstances the other person is not insured in respect of their liability to the Insured Person, the Insurer does not have the right to be subrogated to the Insured Person's rights against that other person.

Where the other person is so insured, the Insurer may not recover from the other person an amount greater than the amount that that person may recover under their insurance policy.

This clause does not apply where the conduct of the other person that gave rise to the loss involved serious or wilful misconduct.

If the Insured Person is an employer, the Insurer will not exercise its right of subrogation against an employee except where the loss was caused by an employee intentionally or recklessly and with knowledge that the loss would probably result.
